

Gateway

This is a gateway to the internal networks of each lab. Please enter your personal key.

To get this key, sign up at the relevant lab. Since we understand you might just want a glimpse of what goes on in one of the labs, we suggest you view this information on our blog instead. Nevertheless, if you still feel curious about the research topics, we recommend making an application to the lab that interests you.

Upon entering your personal key, it would be saved in your browser cookies. Afterwards, it will be used to connect to the lab's encrypted internal network.
